Financial Plan Beyond First Year

The information you provide below is intended to verify that you have a plan to cover the expenses associated with school and living in the U.S. beyond your first year. We do not require bank statements or sponsor letters for this plan, and we realize your funding sources may change along the way, but we believe there is wisdom in having a plan in place to account for the expenses associated with your education. This plan can reflect financial pledges and/or commitments made to you by friends, family members, or organizations such as a church or business. This plan can also reflect your intentions to use personal funds or renewable scholarships from Denver Seminary. Please note that your ability to complete this financial plan may or may not impact your ability to obtain an I-20.
